York County Community Foundation Names Interim President

Bob Newcomer to lead organization through transition period

Please join us in welcoming Bob Newcomer as our Interim President, effective January, 2009. Bob will replace Susan Barry, who is leaving the position this month.

"I am really looking forward to serving the community through York County Community Foundation," shared Newcomer. "I have had a longstanding relationship with the Community Foundation, and I fundamentally believe that the work they do provides great benefits to York County. I am grateful for this opportunity and hope my leadership will pave the way for a smooth transition to a permanent president."

Bob is well known throughout the community. He most recently served as Dean of Business Affairs and Chief Financial Officer at York College of Pennsylvania. Prior to his appointment at the college, Newcomer was an executive with Glatfelter, Inc., where he served as President and Chief Operating Officer. He was also Chief Financial Officer at Glatfelter.

With his background in finance and economics, and much experience on several nonprofit boards, we expect a smooth transition to a new president!

A professional search firm will be retained at the beginning of 2009 with the hope that by spring, the right individual will be identified as a permanent replacement for Susan.

You may reach Bob at rnewcomer@yccf.org or at 717.848.3733.

Welcome, Bob!
