New President Named

William Hartman, a York native, to head York County Community Foundation

The Board of York County Community Foundation approved the appointment of William Hartman as its new president, effective July 13. Bill comes to us from Flint, MI, where he is soon-to-be-retired (May 26) Chair of the Board and former CEO of Citizens Republic Bancorp.

"We could not have found a better candidate for president of the Community Foundation," said Anne Kinsley, chair of the board. "We enthusiastically welcome him aboard."

Bill is a native of York and a graduate of Clarion University and a recipient of its 2004 Distinguished Alumni Award. He has had a long and distinguished career that began at Cumberland County National Bank and Union Bank and Trust of Eastern Pennsylvania. Bill lived in York from 1981 through 1990 while serving as head of Hamilton Bank's York County region and later as head of bankwide commercial banking.

At Bank One Corporation, he served as CEO of several subsidiary corporations in Ohio and Kentucky, and became Chairman, President, and CEO of Citizens Republic Bancorp in Flint, MI, in 2002. He retired as CEO on January 31, 2009.

"I am really looking forward to being home again in York," shared Bill.

We cannot welcome Bill without giving a huge Thank You to Bob Newcomer, who has been our Interim President since January. Bob has shown us what true devotion to one's community really means, and we are forever grateful for his leadership during this transition.

Thank you, Bob and
Welcome aboard, Bill!
